New blow for government

MP PAID FOR VICE GIRL'S
BOOB JOB

By BRAD CHADWICK

A GOVERNMENT MP is under investigation after he was allegedly blackmailed by a prostitute just days after paying for sex.

Kyell Jansson allegedly met a woman at a bar and paid for sex, but just three days later she attempted to extort around £5,000 from him, threatening the politician with the release of explicit images.

Jansson – who denies he paid for sex – admitted that he paid the woman but claimed it was because she had no job at the time and needed money for her rent and for a BOOB JOB.

Brit tanks ready to go in Ukraine

BRITISH-supplied Challenger 2 main battle tanks will soon begin combat missions in Ukraine, the country's defence minister said.

Oleksii Reznikov said the "fantastic" tanks had arrived.

The UK promised 14 tanks to Ukraine, a move which helped persuade other Western nations to supply their own tanks to aid the fight against the Russian invasion.

Mr Reznikov posted a video on social media showing him taking one of the Challenger 2s "for a spin".

He thanks Rishi Sunak and Defence Secretary Ben Wallace, adding: "These fantastic machines will soon begin their combat missions."

Ukrainian crews trained in the UK on the machines, which are being donated by the Government along with ammunition.

Afghan refugees to leave hotels

THOUSANDS of Afghan refugees are reportedly to be forced out of hotels, under Government plans.

Afghan refugees, between 8,000 and 9,000 of whom are living in hotels in the UK, will be given a few months' notice before moving out.

The news is likely to spark concerns that some Afghan refugees could become homeless.

The plan will not apply to asylum seekers housed in hotels by the Home Office. The move will see refugees offered a property.

Over £1m a day is paid to house Afghan refugees who fled the Taliban.

WEAPONS CACHE FOUND AT SCHOOL SHOOTER'S HOME

POLICE found more weapons – including a sawn-off shotgun – at the home of America's latest school shooter.

Three children and three adults were killed in the shooting by an ex-student at a school in the US city of Nashville, Tennessee.

The attack took place at The Covenant School, a private Christian school for students aged three to 11. The three pupils who died were all aged nine.

Police said the suspect gained entry by shooting through a door at the school. A search of their home led to officers seizing more firearms.

The child victims have been named as Evelyn Dieckhaus, Hallie Scruggs and William Kinney.

The adult victims were named as Cynthia Peak, 61, Katherine Koonce, 60, and Mike Hill, 61.

The shooter has been identified as 28-year-old Audrey Hale, officers said.

Hale – a biological woman – "identified as transgender".

The suspect was armed with three guns, including a semi-automatic rifle, and was shot dead by police.

Hale, who had no criminal record, was a former student at the school and officers believe "resentment" may have been a motive.

The shooter had a manifesto and had drawn a detailed map of the school, with entry points. Police are now studying those documents.

Police received the first call about the incident at 10:13 local time (15:13 GMT) on Monday. The suspect drove to the school and got in by firing through one of the doors, which were all locked.

Nashville Police Chief John Drake said cops found a manifesto at the nutter's home – and "a map of how all of this was going to play out", including entry and exit points at the school building.

Corbyn can't stand to be Labour MP

EX-Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn has been formally blocked from standing as a candidate for the party at the next general election.

Labour's governing body – the National Executive – approved a motion proposed by Keir Starmer not to endorse his predecessor by 22 votes to 12.

It means Mr Corbyn, who has had the whip suspended since 2020, will be unable to stand for Labour in Islington North for the first time since 1983.

Mr Starmer's motion says Mr Corbyn "will not be endorsed by the NEC as a candidate on behalf of the Labour Party at the next general election".

It also states the NEC's purpose is to "avoid any detrimental impact on the Labour Party's standing with the electorate" and its "political interests".

Mr Corbyn is sitting in the Commons as an independent after he was suspended over his response to the damning Equalities Commission report in 2020 which found Labour had broken equalities law.

Strikes spark exams chaos

A NEW round of teachers' strikes could disrupt exams after their union recommended rejecting an "insulting" pay offer from the Government.

National Education Union (NEU) co-leader Mary Bousted said teachers do not want to take industrial action on exam days but refused to rule it out if members turn down the pay offer.

Following weeks of talks, the Government offered teachers what the NEU says amounts to a £1,000 one-off cash payment for the present school year and a 4.3% consolidated pay rise for most teachers the following year.

The NEU, which is the largest teaching union, has recommended that members vote to reject this.

PUTIN AIDE: WE'LL NUKE YOU ALL!

are making
big claims

Tyrant's henchman makes chilling threat

VLADIMIR Putin is ready to destroy the West with nuclear weapons if it attempts to defeat and dismember Russia, his top security aide has warned.

Raging Nikolai Patrushev demanded Moscow must be allowed to dominate Europe after the supposed impending collapse of the EU.

The 71-year-old hardline ideologue – seen by some as the brains behind Putin's crazy war in Ukraine – showed in an interview how conspiracy theories are rampant inside the Kremlin, as the seat of Russian power grows isolated.

"Some people in the West are already talking about revenge

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

that would lead to a military victory over Russia," he said.

Ignoring the fact that Putin ordered a brutal invasion of sovereign Ukraine last year, while frequently threatening full-scale world war, Patrushev claimed: "Russia is patient and is not intimidating anyone with its military superiority.

"However, it owns unique modern weaponry capable of destroying any adversary including the US."

His chilling threats included Putin's demand to dominate Europe.

The US currently "does as it pleases in Europe ignoring the fact that the leading role on the continent has historically been Russia's", he added.

"The Russian empire's in the 19th century, the Soviet Union's in the 20th.

"That's how it will be in the 21st century as well."

Conflict

Patrushev, secretary of Russia's security council, is seen to be plotting for his son Dmitry Patrushev, 45, now Putin's agriculture minister, to take over from the dictator as president if he is felled by ill-health or war failures.

But the ex-FSB chief warned: "NATO countries have turned Ukraine into one big military camp."

"In trying to prolong this military confrontation as long as possible, they are not hiding their main goal – the defeat of Russia on the battlefield and its further dismemberment.

"American politicians for some reason retain the conviction that in case of a direct conflict with Russia the US would be capable of delivering a preventive missile strike, after which Russia would no longer be able to respond.

"That is shortsighted idiocy of a very dangerous kind."

The Putin henchman claimed that America uses "laboratories to create new viruses to destroy the peoples of unwanted countries while once clean American cities are drowning in filth and rubbish".

CABINET CALL FOR NEW SNP CHIEF

NEW SNP leader Humza Yousaf has been urged to include former leadership runners Kate Forbes and Ash Ragan in his cabinet.

Ms Forbes just missed out on the leadership, claiming 47.9% of the vote in the second round, while Ms Regan was eliminated in the first round with 11%.

Mr Yousaf, elected first minister at Holyrood yesterday, will set out his government team this week, but has been reluctant to commit to bringing his two rivals into the fray.

Kirk Torrance – a

"I think it would be advantageous and very sensible for Humza to do," he said.

"Both Ash and Kate in his cabinet would be a sensible position for him to take, not least because he does need to unite this party."

ENDERS VICKI ADMITS: I'M A FLUFFER!

LEGEND: Vicki was nervous joining top soap

ACTRESS Vicki Michelle has sensationally revealed she's a FLUFFER!

But don't worry, folks, the 'Allo 'Allo! legend has NOT got a job keeping porn hunks' COCKS hard and ready to shoot ribbons of hot SPUNK during X-rated shoots...

Vicki said she was so nervous to make her EastEnders debut that she fluffed one of her lines – five times!

The actress, 72, joined the BBC soap's cast as Jo Cotton, ex-wife of Rocky, played by Brian Conley.

Despite Vicki's long career as an actress and film producer, the star admitted she was very nervous to join the soap and often forgot her lines.

Daunting

"It was scary going on set for the first time. Even though I've been in the business for 50 years it was still daunting and you do get nervous," she said.

"I fluffed one of my lines five times!"

Vicki's character Jo married Rocky 25 years ago, but he is now engaged to Kathy Beale – played by Enders icon Gillian Taylforth.

"He and Gillian made me feel like family. Brian sent me a text afterwards, saying it was lovely working together and that he was so pleased I had got the part," Vicki added.

The star – who rose to fame as sexy Yvette Carte-Blanche in hit 1980s comedy 'Allo 'Allo! – explained the great relationships with the two co-stars helped her overcome any tension on set.

Back in 1971, Vicki thrilled fans when she went fully nude in the horror movie Virgin Witch.

Millions behind on bills

MILLIONS are failing to pay key bills, including mortgages and energy, as families brace for a fresh round of punishing price rises within days.

Prices are set to surge by 17% on broadband and mobile, while council tax, water, prescription charges and stamp prices will rise from the beginning of April.

The biggest squeeze on living standards since the 1950s means as many as 2.5million households have missed 'must pay' bills in recent weeks, according to research by Which?

Director of policy Rocio Concha, said: "Millions of households are struggling to get their finances on track amid huge pressure on the cost of living."

James cock pics lead to phone ban!

THEATRE audiences in London's West End could be forced to lock up their phones to prevent them taking pictures of actor James Norton's COCK!

The suggestion comes after naked photos of the Happy Valley star on stage in A Little Life were published online.

The images were quickly taken down after outrage on Twitter, with audiences pointing out that the theatre had handed out leaflets saying filming was not allowed.

"I'd be very surprised if this latest incident doesn't act as a trigger for it to become the norm for audiences to have to put their phones in lockboxes at shows starring famous people, or with musical numbers that people want to film," said Alastair Smith, editor of The Stage.

Other experts agree the pics of Norton were clearly a "violation of the unwritten contract between audiences and performers" that it could lead to change.

Tough times for UK banks

THE UK banking system is facing "a period of very heightened tension" but not in a similar position to the 2008 financial crisis, the governor of the Bank of England has told MPs.

"We are in a period of very heightened tension and alertness and we will go on."

WHY I PREFER LESBIAN SEX TO NEIGHBOURS

LESBO MOVIE STAR: Caitlin flashes the flesh

GORGEOUS Caitlin Stasey has revealed how happy she is directing pussy-sucking lesbian porn movies.

The former Neighbours actress, 32, spoke to the I've Got News for You podcast about her job at female-owned porn studio Afterglow.

"The content is pretty intense, but it runs just like any other film set," she said.

"The sets tend to be really inclusive. There's a lot of women. In fact, I think there are more female directors in porn than in mainstream film and television."

She added that being a director is "tough" compared to acting.

"As an actor, your job is to come in. You have control over such a small portion of this massive enterprise," she said.

"And when you're the director, you are judge, jury and executioner."

Pussy

Caitlin also spoke about her 2021 lesbian porn film Eau de Pussy, which is inspired by a perfume commercial and depicts three women performing sex acts on each other during an outdoor picnic.

The star said the idea came to mind after being inspired by mainstream perfume ads that often make "zero sense".

"It's as if they're written by an algorithm on another planet," she said.

"But they're always so sexy and it always feels like sex is about to happen... everyone is sniffing each other's necks and licking each other's wrists."

"So I kind of came up with the concept of a perfume commercial that then becomes a lesbian threesome."

Caitlin is best known to most audiences for her roles as Rachel Kinski on Neighbours from 2005 to 2009, and as Ellie Linton in the 2010 action-adventure film Tomorrow, When the War Began.

Phil taken off air for bro's trial

TELLY star Phillip Schofield will not be on ITV all week, as his brother goes on trial accused of sexually abusing a schoolboy, having allegedly made a confession to his famous sibling.

Alison Hammond has stepped in for Phil, 60 (above), on This Morning – where he usually co-presents with Holly Willoughby – just as Timothy Schofield, 54, appears in the dock at Exeter Crown Court.

The younger brother allegedly had an “obsessive sexual interest” in a teenager and travelled to Phil’s home to confide in him.

The TV presenter told his brother it “should never happen again” and later gave a statement to police which forms part of the case against his younger sibling, the court was told.

Timothy Schofield – a police IT technician – faces 11 charges of sexual offences allegedly committed against the boy over three years from October 2016.

He denies them all.

William Hill cops £19.2m fine for ‘alarming’ failure

THREE gambling businesses owned by William Hill will pay a total of £19.2 million for “widespread and alarming” social responsibility and anti-money laundering failures, the Gambling Commission has announced.

The settlement is the largest in the Gambling Commission’s history.

Gambling Commission chief executive Andrew Rhodes said: “The failings we uncovered were so widespread and alarming consideration was given to licence suspension.”

Failures at William Hill included allowing one customer to open a new account and spend £23,000 in 20 minutes, allowing another to open an account and spend £18,000 in 24 hours, and a third able to spend £32,500 over two days – all without any checks.

PANIC RESPONSE TO PANDEMIC BUGGERED-UP NOOKIE, BOFFINS FIND

MATT HANCOCK HAS SCREWED OUR SEX LIVES!

CHEERS MATT:
Hancock has really shagged us this time

Gabby shows us her amazing floaters!

THE pandemic has been such a passion killer we now have LESS SEX than before the pandemic.

The study of 18 to 59-year-olds found that 19.3% of women and 22.8% of men were “distressed” or “worried” about their sex lives.

Among 18 to 24 year-olds, 20% of women and 17% of men were dissatisfied with their sex lives, among 45 to 59-year-olds, it was 28% of women, and 41.5% of men.

The study, which compared data from 2010, found fewer people get sexual health checks.

Among those with a new partner, 16% had a chlamydia test in the previous year, down from 39% in 2010.

Author Prof Kirstin Mitchell, of Glasgow Uni, said: “These data suggest COVID had a significant influence on sexual health.”

Stress

She blamed the “restrictions on social mixing, disruption to services, and pandemic-related stress”.

Curbs on socialising were championed by then-Health Secretary Matt Hancock who was HIMSELF breaking the rules by banging an aide.

Prof Mitchell said: “Long-term implications are difficult to predict.”

Other studies have shown many Brits have reported sky-rocketing stress levels even after the pandemic ended.

A study of 2,000 adults found an average of 59 minutes a day was spent feeling under pressure or worried about things such as work, finances or health-pre-lockdown.

But this has now risen to an hour and 28 minutes per day since the pandemic.

But the study, by Healthspan, found the over 60s have seen stress levels almost double.

Dr Meg Arroll, a chartered psychologist, said: “For a long time, young people have been thought to be most likely to suffer from an increase in stress and anxiety as they find their way in the world. “But those over 60 have seen the biggest jump in the time they spend suffering from stress and anxiety.”

“There is a real worry about people’s mental health as they adapt to a new normal – particularly for older people who may see more changes in the way they live their lives, leading to feelings of isolation, vulnerability and helplessness.”

AUSSIE Playboy scorcher Gabrielle Epstein isn’t shy when it comes to flaunting her curves on social media.

One fan said: “I’d love to hang on to her boobs, to save me from drowning.”

Choke-sex boyfriend 'kills lover'

A MAN has been charged with manslaughter after confessing to choking his girlfriend to death while they had sex.

Responding police raced to an address in Channelview, Texas, after receiving a medical emergency report.

Officers found 24-year-old DeJe Garrett-Hillard lying unresponsive.

She was rushed to a local hospital, and later pronounced dead.

Deputies interviewed the victim's boyfriend, 27-year-old Jaaron Thomas (above), who told them that the amorous couple were engaged in erotic asphyxiation when Garrett-Hillard became unresponsive.

Erotic asphyxiation refers to a sex act that involves intentionally cutting off air supply to the brain through choking, to increase sexual arousal.

A criminal complaint says Thomas "unlawfully" and "recklessly" caused his girlfriend's death by "applying pressure" to DeJe's throat with his hands.

The centre's director told authorities that an employee found £100 and a note that asked if the day care had any adult-sized nappies, and if employees could "play along" with him.

The director said staff found a similar note accompanied by £150 just a week later.

The day care centre installed CCTV after the first incident and alerted police when they caught Seeler going through a nappy bin and leaving another note.

He has been charged with burglary and theft.

Stormy porn search goes through roof

STORMY Daniels is causing a torrent of views on Pornhub.

Daily searches for the X-rated actress (above) on the adult streaming platform skyrocketed by a staggering 21.655%, as a possible criminal indictment against former US President Donald Trump looms, according to data.

The case is connected to a £106k payment to Daniels made ahead of the 2016 election to cover up an alleged 2006 affair she had with Trump.

Searches for Daniels on the porn site cleared the 467,000 mark last Tuesday, dwarfing her daily average of around 2,150 searches for the first quarter of the year.

Searches for Daniels soared as Trump shared on Truth Social he was about to be arrested in Manhattan, followed days later by declaring himself, among other things, the victim of “the Stormy ‘horse face’ Daniels extortion plot”.

Adult movie star Cherie DeVille said: “If you’re in the news, some man out there is going to wonder what you look like naked.”

DINNER LADY CAGED FOR SEX WITH LAD, 14

GUILTY:
Ruthie Carlson

A SCHOOL dinner lady has been jailed for 30 months for having sex with a 14-year-old boy.

Ruthie Anne Carlson, 20, pleaded guilty to gross sexual imposition, possessing tetrahydrocannabinol with intent to deliver or manufacture, and child neglect.

The incident became public when students at the Ben Franklin Middle School in Fargo, North Dakota, alerted staff to a Snapchat video of a shirtless boy in boxer shorts brushing his teeth with Carlson, who was dressed only in a T-shirt, prosecutor Brianna Kraft said.

"If you recall in this case, it is similar to another we discussed... she abused her position of power and had sexual relations with a 14 year old student," said Kraft, alluding to the case of Sebastian Tackling, a former Fargo South High School band teacher.

The prosecution had asked for eight years' imprisonment and five years' probation, feeling uncertain if Carlson could become a repeat offender.

She used Snapchat to send pictures of an explicit nature to gain the victim's interest, Kraft said.

Carlson's attorney, Monty Mertz, asked that his client be sentenced to five years of probation and only to the 201 days she has already served in jail.

"This is another one of those times that we feel there is a breach of trust," Kraft said, adding that the defence's claim no harm was done was unknown at this point.

By KIT JACKSON

"I really don't know how you can justify this conduct. You were an employee of a middle school and you took advantage of students there," Kraft added.

Weed paraphernalia and THC found in Carlson's apartment added to the severity of her case. Investigators came across 640 THC vape cartridges, which Kraft said was the largest amount local law enforcement had ever found in one location.

The paraphernalia and drugs were easily accessible to Carlson's two-year-old child, court documents said.

Along with prison time, Judge Brady told Carlson to register as a sex offender.

Court records alleged Carlson had sex with the boy in December 2021.

The Fargo School District determined Carlson violated a number of policies and she was fired the same month.

Men were also upheld to strict body standards, with the club stating they "must not carry excess pounds around the waist or stomach".

TEEN-SEX TEACHER AVOIDS JAIL TERM

A TEACHER who admitted having sex with a 16-year-old student in the back seat of her car has avoided jail after the judge deemed she was "not a predator".

Monique Ooms, 31, of Maffra, Australia, was sentenced by County Court of Victoria Judge John Smallwood to a four-year community corrections order, with 300 hours of community work for the crime.

Penetration

She pleaded guilty earlier this month in Victoria's Latrobe Valley County Court to four counts of sexual penetration of a child under her supervision and care and had faced 10 years in prison.

In court, the judge outlined the contributions to society Ooms made and the hardship she'd endured in the community after being outed as a child sex offender.

Ooms (left) had been abused in the street by strangers and was sacked from her jobs at a pharmacy and the local pub.

'WPC forced into BJ with cop partner'

THE first female cop ever to serve in a small town was groped by a supervisor during an initiation ritual, then forced to have oral sex with a married patrol officer, according to a lawsuit.

Teresa Williams, 35 (above), claims she was relentlessly sexually harassed during her four years working for the rural Iron Mountain Police Department in Michigan, according to a federal suit.

In October 2017, just weeks after being hired, Ms Williams was coerced into making out with her direct supervisor, Joseph Dumais, at a bar, the court papers state.

And her ex-patrol partner, Garth Budek, grabbed her hand, "guided her downstairs" and "pressured" her to perform oral sex on him, the lawsuit adds.

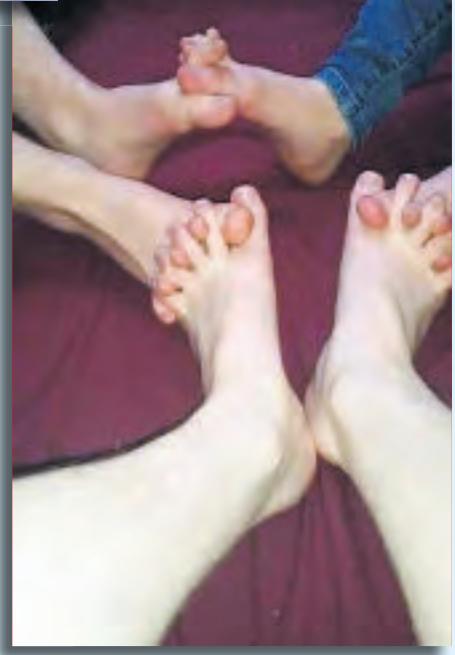

The suit doesn't note how much money she's seeking in damages.

MY SEX FANTASY

'I love to tie a guy up and drip hot wax from a candle onto his naked body'

...WITH

PRYCE, 32FF,
FROM HAMMERSMITH,
WEST LONDON

I'M pretty wild I bed – I love role playing as a dominatrix as it's just so much fun!

But the trouble is, it's not easy to find a man who can handle me.

I can be a demanding mistress.

I always dress to look the part – you have to. I look smoking-hot in my leather-look brassiere with stockings and suspenders.

You've got to wear really high heels of course, or knee length boots.

I'm quite tall at 5ft 10ins so with heels I'm often taller than the bloke.

I love towering over a man in the bedroom and for that reason I don't mind dating shorter men.

I'm very sexual and not afraid to show it. I'm very bossy and I know what I want – if a guy can't handle that, then he can jog on!

I have a whole host of kinky sex toys, including whips, chains, floggers, handcuffs, dildos and anal beads, to name just a few.

I love to tie a guy up and drip hot wax from a candle onto his naked body. It's a great feeling to have that power over someone.

He'll get a good spanking, too. But I always have a safe word, in case he just can't handle what I've got to offer.

Think YOU can handle me?

HORNY Lauren Loretta admits she's quite a handful in the bedroom – because she likes to wring her guy's neck during sex!

The beauty said that nothing turns her on more than being in control between the sheets.

And that's why she loves to wrap her slender fingers around her fella's throat while he pounds her in the missionary position.

The 32C south Londoner said: "A bit of gentle strangling is so hot.

"I love getting my hands around a guy's throat – nothing too hard, I don't want to hurt him!

"There's just something really passionate about it. I guess it's a power thing."

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

American 'culture'

Yanks
my chain!

I WATCHED Monty Python's Life of Brian all the way through for the first time last week.

Took me 52 years to get there, mind, but I'm glad I finally did.

My fave line, which I'll explain, is: "What did the Romans ever do for us?"

Because we could say the same these days about Americans.

While the Romans gave us sewers, roads, and the idea of that small, piddling matter of democracy, the Yanks gave us watery hot dogs, smashed hamburgers, something called gherkins, and mass school shootings.

They gave us barbecues the size of small houses, cars the size of trucks, bad chocolate they don't even call chocolate, and casual multibillion-dollar wars when they were bored or behind in the polls.

They gave us squeezy cheese sauce, endless top-up "soda" drinks, baseball caps, and check-cloth clothing for the very, very fat, designed to make the wearers still look fat but somehow presentable in a modern world.

They gave us XXXL three-quarter length shorts to try but fail to hide fat, pink, wobbly calves.

And they have, of course, completely fked up our language.

Not simply because they do not understand that "sidewalk" really means "pavement".

Or that a "zucchini" is actually a courgette.

Or that "color" is spelt "colour" and that a "center" is a "centre".

Brits sit and read or watch these things and bristle with impertinence. Well, I do, anyway.

Why are they such a bunch of fat, mouthy, entitled twats, really?

How about speak and muck up your own fing language, which theoretically should be some form of Sioux?

And, worse still, why are our kids increasingly speaking like them?

Because it's not just our language but our culture, too.

I got a bollocking from the previously expensive step-expensive a couple of weeks ago for suggesting that "can I get" should really be "may I have" to a waitress.

WAITER MINUTE:

The PESE still isn't returning my calls.

But it's a point, right?

This Americana obsession simply has to end.

Last week, a New York waitress prompted questions in Spain about tipping culture.

She used social media to slag off a group of Spanish diners for adding "only" 10 percent to a $700 bill at the restaurant where she works in the Big Apple.

Madison Tayt wrote in a tweet: "We need to ban Europeans from travelling here until they learn how to act."

She was whining because she reckoned her "tip" should have been double what it was.

Which means it's no longer a tip, and more a way of instructing punters that it's actually their job to pay the restaurant staff's wages, rather than the actual owners of the restaurant.

This is madness.

Piss-take

The US's culture of encouraging customers to pay their own staff's wages is an absolute piss-take – and of course, it happens here, too.

But those of us who have had the pleasure of eating in normal high street eateries and getting served well by waiters putting plates of pasta in front of them know what I mean.

They tend to be Italian. They tend to serve you well. And quickly. With a smile on their faces.

They tend to be older men.

And it's all because they are being paid properly and do not act like grumpy teens who have just left school and think everyone owes them a living or is doing it between hopefully lucrative Instagram posts.

We don't need more Americana. We need a hell of a lot less.

Decades in jail for son who killed dentist dad

A MAN who killed and dismembered his own dad will spend several decades in prison.

A judge ordered Scott Sterffy, 58 (above), to serve 25-50 years in jail for the 2021 slaying of retired dentist Thomas Aye, 82, along with four to 10 years for mutilation of a dead body, to be served concurrently.

Sterffy, who was diagnosed with paranoid schizophrenia and was institutionalised earlier in his life, last month entered a mentally ill plea to the charge of second-degree murder in his father's slaying.

Authorities said that prior to being dismembered, Mr Aye had sustained multiple blunt force trauma and stab wounds to his face, head, and body, and was also asphyxiated.

Sterffy had been staying at his father's home in Portage, Michigan, during the time of the killing and fled the state shortly afterwards.

The murder sparked a nationwide manhunt for Sterffy, who was eventually taken into custody in Kalamazoo, Michigan, a few days after his dad's death.

Two dead in choc factory explosion

AT least two people were killed and nine are missing after a huge explosion at a chocolate factory.

A blast at the RM Palmer Company plant rocked the town of West Reading, Pennsylvania – with at least eight people being hospitalised for medical attention.

A spokesperson for Reading hospital said that of the eight patients, one was transferred, two were in a fair condition and the rest had been released.

The cause of the blast is being investigated, but officials believe it may have been the result of a gas leak.

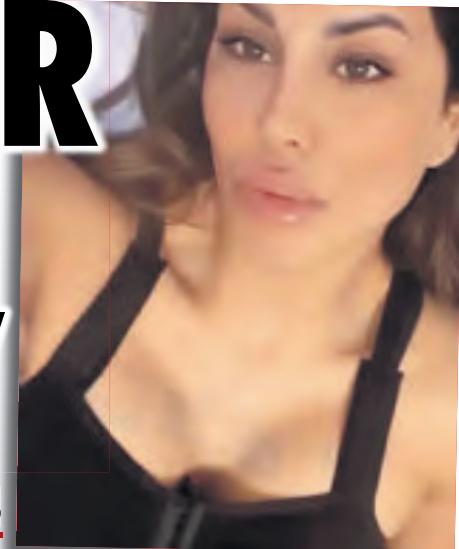

Videos posted on social media shows the building violently explode, sending debris, flames and melted chocolate into the sky.

Locals have been told to avoid the area.

MP 'PAID FOR HOOKER'S NEW BOOBS'

Blackmail charge after sex romps

CRIMINAL HISTORY:
Zainab Sattar
Rustum

AN MP who was allegedly blackmailed by a prostitute just days after he is said to have paid her for sex is being investigated.

Kyell Jansson, a member of Swedish PM Ulf Kristersson's centre-right Moderate Party and chairman of its nomination committee, met a woman at a bar and allegedly paid her for sex.

But just three days later she attempted to extort around £5,000 from him, threatening the politician with the release of sexual images.

Jansson admitted he paid the woman but claimed it was because she had no job at the time and needed money for rent.

He also allegedly paid for the woman – named online as Zainab Sattar Rustum, 27 – to have breast surgery.

Moderate Party head of communications, Ida Karlstrom, said: "The member has taken time out from his commitments. It is standard procedure for judicial review and the legal process must now be allowed to run its course."

"Our starting point is that it is good that suspicions are being investigated and can't comment further on the events at this time."

Threesome

The MP allegedly met the woman and one of her pals at a Stockholm bar and the three are said to have gone back to the MP's home and had a threesome.

The woman claimed Jansson bought sex from her – a claim which he denies.

"He should have contacted the police earlier, but he may not have understood what situation he was in from the beginning. I'm very sorry for him. This was sad," an acquaintance of Jansson said.

The prostitute is said to have a criminal history and has been previously sentenced for assault for stabbing an ex and unlawfully detaining another woman, cutting off her hair and taking nude photos of her.

Prosecutor Maria Sterup said a probe was underway but was not clear on whether the investigation focused on extortion or on the purchase of sex.

In 2017, a manager at Sweden's state media broadcaster SVT was caught trying to buy the virginity of an underage girl in what was actually an undercover sting by a newspaper.

Prostitution is illegal in Sweden.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'M a bouncer at a lap dance bar and I've had a few flings with some of the really fit performers.

I've recently shagged a gorgeous Polish girl. She's blonde and has a perfect body with lovely 32D tits and she's filthy in bed.

The first time I boned her was in the back of my car. It was after I gave her lift home when she said she couldn't invite me in because her boyfriend was there.

So I drove to a local park and had her on the back seat from behind.

She sucked me off for ages before she bent over to spread her cheeks for me.

And just as I was about to come she told me take her up the arse!

The problem is that she has now finished with her fella and wants to move in with me. I don't want that.

SP, Birmingham

Sam says...

IT sounds like a fling to me – tell her you prefer living alone.

Dear Sam,

MY wife, a tasty brunette in her late 30s, likes to shag builders. She gets them to quote for jobs and then offers sex in return.

So far, we've had a conservatory and an extension done for very reasonable prices.

She was up front about her desires, so I don't feel she's cheated on me.

I often ask her to film the romps on her mobile phone – as long as the builders agree, of course – so I can watch them, too.

A couple of weeks ago I watched as a young fella in his 20s boned her.

She sucked him off and then he nailed her in both holes before spunking on her tits.

Problem is I fear she'll leave me one day.

PS, Leeds

Sam says...

MAYBE learn how to be a builder yourself!

Grieving girlfriend is giving me no-sex grief

Dear Sam,

I'VE been dating a girl for about a year now. I'm 20 and she's 23, dark-haired, with big tits and a good arse.

At first the sex was great – on our second date she asked to go for a drive and when I'd parked up she went straight to my pants and started playing with my knob.

I was hard in an instant and she took off her top and put my throbbing cock between her lovely boobs and tugged me off until I shot my sticky load everywhere.

She also loved dressing up for sex sessions in stockings and suspenders and being taken from behind, hard and fast.

But her mum died recently and she's gone all miserable and started wearing black all the time – but not her undies, sadly.

We haven't done it for two weeks and my ballbag is bursting. Now I'm seriously thinking of dumping her. What do you think?

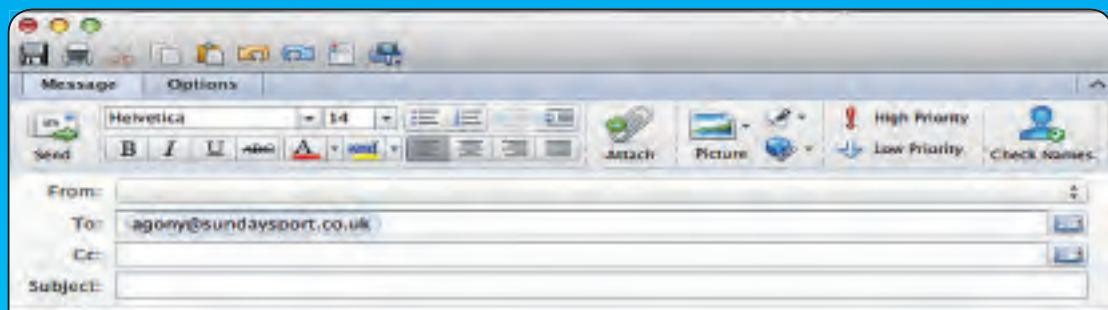

JC, Bristol

Sam says...

HAVE some sympathy while she grieves, you horrible little shit!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Tool factory beauty loves to polish my big wrench

Dear Sam,

I AM a married middle-aged man with two kids and a boring job.

I work in a factory that makes engineering tools that is 95 per cent full of blokes and the few women who work there are nothing to get excited about.

That was until recently, though. There was an old cleaning lady who used to keep our tea room nice and tidy before she retired and her recent replacement is fit as fk.

We all ogled this new bird when we first saw her. She's about 35, with blonde hair and a very nice figure.

Aroused

On her first day at work, all the lads were flirting with her and paying her compliments and trying it on with her. But she was having none of it and told them in no uncertain terms to go and fk themselves – which was funny!

Then one day a couple of weeks ago I went for a cup of tea and was alone until the fit cleaner came in to join me.

We started chatting, she was showing more than usual and I got a cracking glimpse of her lovely arse.

Straight away I became aroused, even more when she turned around and I could see right down her top!

She caught me looking at her and I thought she was going to give me a right mouthful – or punch me in the face!

But amazingly, she moved her hand down to my crotch and felt my bulge.

Then she undid my pants and got down on her knees before she wrapped her lips round my throbbing helmet.

She was an expert at blowjobs – bobbing quickly along the full length of my shaft and even taking my entire knob right down her greedy throat!

I was about to shoot my load when she slipped out of her white panties and invited me to take her from behind.

Since then I've been shagging her at least three times a week!

I really like the cleaner, who is married with one kid, and I am now planning to leave my wife for her.

Should I go for it? Please advise!

HG, Sheffield

Sam says...

If you honestly think you have any kind of a future together – other than just shagging each other's brains out – then go for it.

Dear Sam,

I'M a 22-year-old girl and I've been working for two months in a large office with four other women – and 20 blokes.

I've managed to shag six of the fellas already. It's not that I'm a slag or anything – I just love sex.

I had my first office jump with the manager when I bonked his brains out on a quiet stairwell.

But the best shag was with a 20-year-old hunk who shafted me doggy-style for a good 30 minutes.

But now the other women call me the office bike. How can I put an end to this tittle-tattle?

SB, Essex

Sam says...

GO easy and be a bit more selective.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

Wife eager to nail me – but it hurts!

Dear Sam,

I AM a 32-year-old bisexual and I've been sleeping with my sister-in-law.

We were at a party and both a bit tipsy when I confessed to her that I liked to make love to women as well as men. To my surprise, she admitted that she had the same leanings – so we staggered out unnoticed to the garage for a bit of a snog.

Once inside, we locked lips for a while as we felt each other's breasts. Then I slipped my hand up her skirt and down her panties and eased my fingers into her pussy and massaged her clit.

She was moaning with pleasure and I steadily increased the pace until she had a shuddering orgasm. Then she shocked me by taking a small vibrator out of her handbag.

I was in heaven as she went to work on my moist pussy and soon I climaxed.

We've been sneaking round to one another's houses since and we are thinking of setting up home together.

But it's not easy for me as she's my husband's sister.

What can I do? JE, north Yorks

To be honest, I thought her back would stop us shagging as often, but it hasn't – we just can't be as adventurous as we used to be.

Most of our lovemaking is now in the missionary position. But I'm still getting serviced five times a week, which isn't too bad for a fella in his 50s.

The problem is, now my missus isn't gardening any more, she has grown her nails long.

She's always passionate on the job, but she's ripping my back to shreds.

I've told her about it, but she says I'm ungrateful and that I should find it horny.

What should I do?

VK, Kent

Sam says...

TAKE your wife to a nail bar for some pampering, and save your back.

LIKE a strap-on, it's a hard one. Maybe you should keep it secret.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

EMILY OLDFIELD

TOPLESS stunner Emily Oldfield was requested by Andy Heaton because he can't get enough of her cracking rack.

The 47-year-old steward, from Burnley, Lancs, reckons that every time he sees Emily's 34C boobs, he feels a stir in his pants.

We don't think he's the only one, as the Cambridge lassie is a favourite with our readers.

Andrew said: "She's just sensational."

"Every single time I see those gorgeous boobs, my cock just goes solid instantly."

"No other woman has that effect on me!"

HANNAH BUCKLE

SCOTTISH gardener Callum Clarke has tons of photos of glamour girls in his shed, but Hannah Buckle is his fave.

The 51-year-old, from Ayr, has a bevy of beauties pinned up among his tools – but Hannah's 32DDs take pride of place.

Hannah, from Guildford, Surrey, is the apple of Callum's eye and he said: "I've probably got about 50 girls in my shed, but their boobs are only wee compared to Hannah's!"

CASSIE SUMMER

CAR valet boss Dean Osborne might clean cars for a living, but says if he had a night with Cassie Summer things would get dirty.

The 56-year-old business owner gets to clean celebrity supercars daily – but his fantasy involves glamour legend Cassie, from Chichester, West Sussex.

Dean, from Guildford, said: "If Cassie came in for a valet, I'd give her the full works."

"Although, things wouldn't get clean, it'd get dirty!"

"There'd be white stuff all over her boobs and it won't be shampoo!"

O'Brien has strong team for Classics

AUGUSTE Rodin, Little Big Bear and Meditate look likely to spearhead Aidan O'Brien's Classic challenge this term, but leading 1,000 Guineas candidate Statuette is unlikely to feature at Newmarket.

The daughter of Justify won both her juvenile starts last term but has been off the track since landing a Curragh Group in June.

She had been towards the head of the market for the first filly's Classic on May 7, but O'Brien feels she is doubtful to make the line-up.

He said: "Statuette has had a little bit of a hold up and I don't think she's going to make the Guineas. We will just go gentle and see what happens."

Auguste Rodin signed off last term with victory in the Vertem Futurity Trophy over a mile at Doncaster, while Little Big Bear was an effortless six-length winner in the six-furlong Phoenix Stakes on his final start of the campaign at the Curragh in August.

O'Brien said: "We're very happy with Auguste Rodin. What he did at the Curragh was very good, following a three-year-old sprinter. We were very happy with that.

"He was very comfortable working with The Antarctic, we were surprised at him but he was always very classy from the first time Ryan (Moore) rode him."

"I think they are (the main two for Newmarket), then the lads will have to decide whether to let the two of them run together or split them up. They are the two that will be trained for Newmarket, that makes sense."

O'Brien thinks Little Big Bear will get a mile, although he has yet to try a trip in excess of six furlongs, but Auguste Rodin is expected to sparkle over further in time.

He said: "I suppose Little

TRAINER: O'Brien

Big Bear would be very comfortable and happy to go back sprinting, but I think there's a good chance he will get a mile. He races very relaxed.

"You'd imagine Auguste Rodin will go better stretching out to a mile and a quarter or a mile and a half. He's that type of horse (that could get any trip in time). If we have a horse that could do that, he's definitely the one.

"We nearly didn't run him at Doncaster on the ground. He's an exceptional mover, a very slick, long and low mover. He's the type of horse that could start in the Guineas and stretch out."

Victoria Road, winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, is pencilled in for the French 2000 Guineas and Derby, while Hans Andersen, Denmark, Alfred Munnings, Adelaide River and Alexandroupolis could all have Classic trial dates at some point, although Espionage is reported to have had a minor issue.

O'Brien said: "He was in full work and then he got a little bit of a shoulder and he's only swimming, so he's going to be held up for a little bit."

O'Brien ranks his three-year-old colts team highly, adding: "We've plenty of chances there and we have two very strong Guineas horses, we have the horse for France. Little Big Bear is very classy, but they are obviously two very good colts."

Punters Rushen in to back Castle

CASTLE RUSHEN can provide the in-form Nicky Richards with another victory by making a successful return to the smaller obstacles at Newcastle.

The Greystoke handler has been firing in the winners since mid-March and having won a bumper and twice over hurdles, Castle Rushen looked an exciting recruit to the chasing game at the start of this season.

Unfortunately things have not gone entirely to plan for the eight-year-old as he has unseated his rider in two of his four outings over fences and did not get into any sort of rhythm when finishing tailed off at Kelso last time out.

It is no surprise that at this late stage of the season Richards has decided to send Castle Rushen back over timber for the quinnbet.com Handicap Hurdle the and on the pick of his form he is undoubtedly well handicapped off his revised mark of 128.

WEDNESDAY'S TIPS

Quarterback Handicap Chase.

The 10-year-old has five wins over fences on his CV and was value for more than the official winning margin over a length and a half at Wetherby.

He turns out quickly under a 7lb penalty and if he is the same form as he was in West Yorkshire he will take some stopping.

Skytastic may reward those who keep the faith in the DownloadThe Rhino.Bet App Handicap Chase at Market Rasen.

Chance

The seven-year-old looked seriously smart this time last year, at which stage he was unbeaten after two bumpers and two hurdle starts.

He was well beaten when stepped up in class for a Grade One at Aintree's Grand National meeting, though, and not much encouragement can be taken from either of his two chase starts this term.

The upside is the handicapper has given him some relief, dropping him 4lb after being pulled up at Doncaster on his latest outing.

Returning from a couple of months off the track, Skytastic is given another chance to prove his worth.

Halondo can make it back-to-back course wins in the Premier League Offers At Rhino.Bet Handicap Hurdle.

Following three placed efforts, Olly Murphy's inmate bolted up on his handicap debut here in mid-March, readily pulling 13 lengths clear of his toiling rivals in good style.

The handicapper had his say, handing Halondo a 10lb rise, but he remains open to improvement following just seven lifetime starts and a step up in trip may help him take his game to another level.

Lingfield punters are strongly advised to side with A Taste Of Honey in the talkSPORT Powered By Fans Handicap.

Archie Watson's three-year-old was a winner last time out, landing a course and distance contest by a head in September when making her all-weather debut.

That victory was some time ago, but itself came after a significant break and proved that the filly can go well without a run under her belt.

All-Weather fare also William Haggas' three-year-old did not hit the frame as a colt, but a gelding operation seemed to bring about some improvement when he won a one-mile handicap at Southwell in February.

He may have been beaten over the same course and distance next time, but cheekpieces are applied for the first time at Kempton and could see him rediscover that prior form.

WAKE-UP CALL FROM ROVERS

WAKEFIELD coach Mark Applegarth insisted he and his team can still turn around their struggling Betfred Super League season after slumping to a 34-6 loss against Hull KR.

Sam Wood, Louis Senior, Tom Opacic and Kane Linnett all crossed in the first half for the Robins, with Mikey Lewis, Elliot Minchella and Opacic touching down in the rainy second period.

Trinity could only manage a late consolation try by prop Jai Whitbread as they fell to a sixth straight defeat to start the season and sit at the bottom of the table.

But Applegarth says his side are not throwing in the towel and will "come good" as they seek to avoid relegation.

"We need a bit of self-belief and accountability," he said.

"Sometimes you have to take it on the chin. We'll have a look we've prepared the players properly, from a game plan point of view."

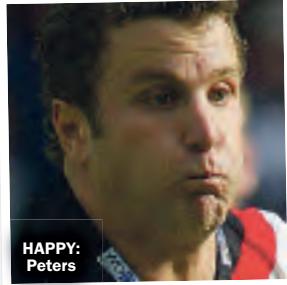

"I do see a way out. The injuries have hit us hard. We need some of our senior heads back, who know what this level of rugby is like."

"Of course I still have the appetite to coach. Rain or shine I'll be here giving it 100 per cent. Yes it's tough, yes it stings, but that's how you learn. We'll come good."

Hull KR raced to an 18-0 first half lead and Trinity struggled to keep possession in the wet conditions at the Be Well Support Stadium.

"That first half was very frustrating," Applegarth said.

"Hull KR did basically to us what we wanted to do to them."

RUGBY LEAGUE By JACK FARLEY

They capitalised on three out of our four errors. They rolled us.

"I can't fault the players for effort, but I can't keep saying this, we have to start learning lessons."

Rovers coach Willie Peters praised his team's defensive resilience as they ended a three-game losing run.

"I'm really pleased," he said. "It's always tough coming to Wakefield. They were searching for that win and we didn't want it to be us."

"We didn't make it easy for ourselves, we had some unforced errors, but I was really pleased with how we defended our try-line.

Nervous

"We wanted to be a side that defends well and works hard for each other, and I think that was on show tonight."

"We had three losses in a row but we weren't too far off. It wasn't perfect, but it was definitely a step in the right direction."

The Robins face a nervous wait over the fitness of winger Ryan Hall, who limped off early in the first half with a knee injury.

"I don't know a great deal, he'll have to go for scans," Peters said. "I'm hoping it's nothing major. There's an injury there but I'm not sure of the significance. I think it will be a few weeks out."

Wakefield's pitch has received headlines this season, with an inspection held earlier in the week to ensure the game could be played.

Peters declined to comment on the state of the surface.

"I don't want to go too much into it," he said.

"We got through it, there was no major concerns. There's some scratches, but it is what it is."

Hogg calls time on a top career

RUGBY UNION

SCOTLAND full-back Stuart Hogg has announced that he will be retiring from playing rugby after the World Cup later this year to pursue a new career as he declared that he "always wanted to finish at the top end of the game".

The 30-year-old has just won his 100th cap against Ireland.

Hogg will play out the rest of the season with Exeter before hanging up his boots after the international showpiece in France in the autumn as he does not believe his body will allow him to maintain the standards he sets for himself "for much longer".

The Hawick-born player said: "After RWC 2023, my professional rugby journey will end. As a young kid growing up in the Borders, all I wanted to do was to play rugby for Scotland."

"I feel privileged to have represented my country on 100 occasions, play on three British & Irish Lions tours and represent some amazing clubs. I couldn't have asked for any more."

"I've so many people to thank and I will get round to you all. First and foremost is my wife Gill, my parents, my brother and my kids. I'm so lucky and proud to have such a loving family that have supported me every step of the way."

"Rugby has allowed me to meet some incredible characters, make lifelong friends, travel the world and be part of some unbelievable experiences that I will cherish forever."

"Knowing what lies ahead, I have a real hunger to play the best, most enjoyable rugby of my career, finishing the season strongly with Exeter Chiefs before attacking the opportunity we, as a nation, have in France."

"I don't feel my body can achieve the standards that I set myself for much longer and I've always wanted to finish at the top end of the game."

"After the tournament, a new career beckons and I will attack it in the same manner as I play the game. I hope I have done you proud. 100 not out (just yet)."

Hogg began his career with Glasgow, playing his first match in 2010, and made his Scotland debut in 2012. He has played at two World Cups, in 2015 and 2019, and went on each of the last three British & Irish Lions tours in 2013, 2017 and 2021.

LAM PROUD OF LEOPARDS

LEIGH boss Adrian Lam admitted he was "really proud" of his players after they fought hard to claim their third win of the Super League season with a 24-16 victory over Hull FC.

The Leopards raced into a 16-point lead and held their nerve in the second half to repel a Hull comeback.

"It's always a tough place to come and play but I thought we started the game really well and managed it well. I'm really proud of the group," Lam said.

"We completed at around 90 per cent in the first half and only made four errors in the whole game which was brilliant and it's something we've worked really hard on."

Lam heaped praise on winger Josh Charnley - who celebrated a hat-trick - and his son, half-back Lachlan Lam, who was outstanding.

"Josh has started the season off on fire. We've been moving the ball around a lot and he must be up there at the moment with leading scorers in the competition," he said.

"Lachlan's looked really slick all year. We've worked to get his confidence back and he's showing class, but he's still a way from his best," Lam admitted next week's clash with Wigan would be one of real excitement for him and his players.

"It's a local derby and Wigan are going OK. It's a Thursday night game and on TV, that's where we want to be as a club," he added.

Hull boss Tony Smith pulled no punches in his assessment of another lacklustre performance.

"It's disappointing. It took us way too long to build anything in the game. We've gotta stop allowing opponents to hurt us before we do something about it," he said.

"It's consistency, that's the big challenge, but we have to get out of this habit of starting slow and not adjusting to what our opponents are doing."

"We knew what Leigh would try and do to us but for us to succumb to what they wanted to do was frustrating. Today reflects how our season has been, starting slow and coming home to give ourselves a chance."

Smith was critical of his side's discipline, who lost Ligi Sado to two separate sin binnings during the match.

"We lost the penalty count 11-5 and two sin binnings at home, which tells me our discipline is appalling. That is self-inflicted and us hurting ourselves and we simply need to be better than that," he explained.

Walking Conte's a record breaker

STARTLING 11 BOSSES HAVE GONE ALREADY THIS SEASON

ANTONIO Conte's departure from Tottenham was the 11th in the Premier League this term, a record for in-season managerial changes.

The Italian's exit by mutual consent was announced by the club on Sunday evening, with his assistant Cristian Stellini placed in charge until the summer.

Here, Midweek Sport looks at this season's departures and how they tally compares to past seasons in the Premier League.

TIMELINE OF TROUBLE

AUGUST

Scott Parker took Bournemouth to promotion last season but did not even see out their first month back in the Premier League after a 9-0 defeat to Liverpool.

SEPTEMBER

A shock Champions League defeat to Dinamo Zagreb prompted Chelsea to dismiss Thomas Tuchel. Brighton boss Graham Potter was lured to replace him.

OCTOBER

Wolves moved on from Bruno Lage early in the month, before Steven Gerrard was dismissed by Aston Villa.

By ANDY MILLOM

NOVEMBER

Southampton's struggles saw Ralph Hasenhuttl sacked and replaced by Nathan Jones.

JANUARY

Everton's ongoing relegation fears cost Frank Lampard his role at Goodison Park.

FEBRUARY

Leeds ended Jesse Marsch's unhappy spell in charge before, a week later, Jones became the second Saints casualty of the season after just three months in charge.

MARCH

Crystal Palace sacked Patrick Vieira after a 12-match winless run before Conte's increasingly fractious relationship with Spurs came to an end.

SACKING SEASON

Eleven in-season departures breaks the record of 10, set on three previous occasions in the Premier League era.

The 2013-14 campaign was the first to hit double figures, with Fulham contributing two to that total as first Martin Jol and then Rene Meulensteen were shown the door. West Brom and Tottenham's in-season appointments, Pepe Mel and Tim Sherwood respectively, lasted only until the end of the season and Spurs then lured Mauricio Pochettino from Southampton, taking the season's final total to 13.

There were a record 15 in total in 2017-18, with again 10 coming during the season including two each from Southampton (Claude Puel and Mauricio Pellegrino) and West Brom (Tony Pulis and Alan Pardew).

West Ham, Everton, Stoke and Swansea each made a second change when the season concluded, while Arsene Wenger resigned from his long reign at Arsenal.

Last season was the other to see 10 managers jettisoned during the season, including both Xisco Munoz and Claudio Ranieri being flung off the ever-erratic Watford roundabout.

An 11th departure came at the end of the season as Manchester United's interim boss Ralf Rangnick, appointed in November to succeed Ole Gunnar Solskjaer, left Old Trafford.

There have been three separate instances of nine in-season departures, in 1994-95 – when there were still 22 clubs in the Premier League – 2004-05 and 2008-09.

SUPER SAKA IS A LITTLE CRACKER

BUKAYO Saka's superb season for club and country continued with a stunning long-range goal in England's Euro qualifier win over Ukraine.

ENGLAND

Two minutes after setting up Harry Kane's opener against Ukraine, Saka received the ball on the half-turn from full-back Kyle Walker and lined up a wonderful curling left-foot shot into the top corner from 20 yards.

That means he now has a goal and an assist to his name in his most recent appearance for both England and Arsenal, for whom he scored twice and set up Gabriel Martinelli in the 4-1 win over Crystal Palace.

It was his eighth international goal, ranking fourth in Gareth Southgate's reign behind Kane – 50 of whose national-record 55 goals have come under Southgate – Raheem Sterling (18) and Marcus Rashford (14). Those three players have respectively made 65, 55 and 48 appearances under Southgate to Saka's 26.

Fifth-ranked Harry Maguire has also played 55 times, albeit in central defence, for his seven goals.

Only Dixie Dean, Jimmy Greaves (16 each), Wayne Rooney (12) and Michael Owen (10) had more than his eight England goals at his current age. Rooney, Greaves and Owen are all among England's top six scorers.

ARSENAL

Saka has already recorded the best Premier League and overall goal tallies for a season in his career to date, with 12 in the league and a Europa League winner against Bodo/Glimt plus four for England.

Adding 10 league assists makes him the only player in double figures for both in the Premier League, and the first Arsenal player to achieve that feat since Alexis Sanchez in 2016-17.

He has played a key role in the Gunners' rise to the top of the table, starting every game and playing 2,410 minutes in total according to the competition's official statistics – ranking fourth among Arsenal players and 18th league-wide.

He is just one goal behind Martinelli as the club's leading scorer and has taken more shots than any of his team-mates except captain Martin Odegaard but his influence stretches beyond his attacking output – with 39 tackles made, he ranks behind only midfielder Thomas Partey and defender Ben White for Arsenal.

According to data company WhoScored, Saka is the only player in Europe's top five leagues to have hit double figures this season for league goals, assists, key passes (61), dribbles (46), tackles and interceptions (13).

MIK THE MAN FOR RAMSEY

By WES DERBY

hold an eight-point Premier League lead over his old one with City having a game in hand.

"It would be absolutely great (if Arsenal win the league)," said Wales captain Ramsey, who made nearly 370 appearances for the club before leaving north London for Juventus in 2019.

"It is still a massive part of me. I spent 10, 11 years there and for them to go on and win the league, I'm as much a fan as anybody."

"I still know so many players and members of staff there. The fans deserve it."

Ramsey said he always knew Arteta would step into management after his playing days.

He said: "You could see his leadership qualities and the way that he handled himself was second to none."

"What he is doing now, definitely, you could see he was always going to be a manager one day, the way he thought and saw the game and how intense he was as well."

"It is absolutely unbelievable what he has done there, what they are doing at the moment."

"We used to talk about it (the FAW) and he would tell me how impressed he was with the Welsh set-up, their methods and the way that they go about things."

"They have done a fantastic job in producing some top managers and a lot of people are coming through that programme at the moment."

Ramsey has taken over the Wales armband following Gareth Bale's retirement after the World Cup before Christmas.

The midfielder knows success for the Dragons has to begin at home if they are to qualify for another major tournament.

He said: "We have always done well at home in other campaigns and this has to be no different."

ADMIRER: Nicky Butt

says Nicky

NICKY Butt believes Erik ten Hag was "born to manage Man United."

The former Ajax boss has made a huge impression in his first season at Old Trafford.

United, who won the Carabao Cup earlier this month, are third in the Premier League and still in contention in two other knockout competitions.

It is a far cry from last season when the team was managed by three different people and finished in sixth place, 35 points behind champions Manchester City.

Former United midfielder Butt said: "I think he's done a great job, no matter what happens. Regardless of the trophies, if he stays in the top four he's been very successful."

"He's come into a football club that was really struggling and probably in its worst state, in terms of football, for about 20 years."

"Turning over coaches all the time isn't the answer – that's been proven at other clubs and proven at our club over the last 10 years."

"You have to have continuity and you have to go through ups and downs as a manager. There'll be another sticky spell, you can guarantee it, but he is a top coach and looks like he's born for Old Trafford."

Butt, who will return to Old Trafford in June when he participates in Soccer Aid for UNICEF, has been impressed how quickly the Dutchman, 53, has settled and stamped his authority.

The 48-year-old said: "Looking from the outside in, it looks like everyone knows who the boss is, he's dealt with a lot of big issues, personalities and egos around the club."

"He's ingrained himself into the local area. You see him walking around and out with his family in local restaurants."

"He's got a camaraderie in the team and there doesn't seem to be anything coming out of the changing rooms. Everything seems to be going in the right way. "On the pitch, he's got them back to winning ways and they don't give in. That's not a magic wand. That's work on the training pitch, work on character and on the team."

Butt made 387 appearances for United after coming through their youth system, winning six Premier League titles, three FA Cups and the Champions League, and later served on their backroom staff.

SOUTHGATE REFUSES TO REST ON LA ENGLAND COOKING ON GAZ!

But boss warns players and fans that Lions have not qualified for Euros yet

GARETH Southgate warned England's quest for European Championship glory will be in "trouble" if their focus or commitment wavers after making a dream start to qualification.

The trip to reigning champions Italy and Sunday's Wembley clash against Euro 2020 quarter-final opponents Ukraine provided a tough start on the journey to next summer's finals in Germany.

But Southgate's absentee-hit side bounced back well from the disappointment of December's World Cup quarter-final exit to France, with last Thursday's 2-1 victory in Naples representing a first win away to Italy since 1961.

Three days later England comfortably beat Ukraine 2-0 in front of a sell-out crowd, meaning they took maximum points from the hardest double-header in a group completed by North Macedonia and Malta.

The Euro 2020 runners-up are expected to record another six-point haul when they face the latter nations in the summer, but Southgate will not allow complacency to seep in.

"I would expect everyone would want to be here and want to be a part of it," the England boss said of June's trip to Malta and Group C qualifier against North Macedonia at Old Trafford.

"We'll of course look to psychologically refresh the group by giving them some time off at the end of the season."

"But if we start to think that we haven't got to turn up for games in June because the world ranking of the opponents isn't as high as the two opponents we've had now, then we are in trouble, really."

"That's not the approach we'll be looking for and I don't think the mentality of the team (is like that).

"We're challenging the team to be the best in Europe in the next 13 months."

"That requires everybody's commitment, that requires everybody to be prepared to play whenever and that requires the standards of training every day and everything we do to be at the highest level no matter who we're playing against."

This is England's fourth attempt at winning a major tournament under Southgate, who oversaw the surprising run to the 2018 World Cup semi-finals before going within a penalty shoot-out of triumphing at Euro 2020.

Further progress was visible on the field in Qatar, only for eventual finalists France to emerge victorious from their hard-fought World Cup quarter-final.

Southgate considered his future after that defeat but a week later committed to seeing through his Football Association contract that runs until 2024.

"I think that whatever had happened this week I still felt it would have been the right decision (to stay on)," the England boss said.

Brilliant

"For a start, I think the team can continue to improve."

"Had the decision been different, I think this would have been a really complicated week for somebody else to come in and take two matches with such a quick turnaround."

"But I've said to the players in the dressing room I love being a part of this team. They're brilliant to work with."

"The players that haven't got on the pitch this week – Eric Dier, Marc

AURELS AFTER TWO GOOD WINS

Guehi, Fraser Forster, Aaron Ramsdale – have been absolutely brilliant.

"Kieran Trippier, Reece (James) had 15 minutes where they had to come on, deliver to get us the win in Italy and they did. And that epitomises the spirit they've got.

"Their commitment to each other is fundamental for why we've made progress over the last few years and they showed that in abundance this week."

Another key reason for England's rise is the performances of record-breaking skipper Harry Kane.

Thursday's penalty in Italy saw him become the country's all-time top scorer – a figure he extended to 55 by opening the scoring against Ukraine, who were then hit by a Bukayo Saka stunner.

"I know the goals are of course important, but I liked his all-round performances," Southgate said of captain Kane, who missed a key spot-kick in the loss to France. He was strong with both pairs of centre-backs that he had to play against and I thought that was a really good message for the team.

"He was backing into players, was aggressive with his play and I think that's important for him. He's got to continue to do that.

Drive

"He's somebody that I think it would be easy for us to get drawn into not challenging but we've got to challenge him as well."

The individual accolades are well deserved and are amazing but he wants to be part of a team that's successful.

"That's the drive with England for us to achieve that."

"He'll be just as happy that we've got the six points and put ourselves in a good position in the group as getting the two goals this week as well."

DYKES PRIMED FOR TARTAN ARMY FIGHT

LYNDON Dykes says he's thrilled to have pulled on a Scotland shirt again.

The QPR striker endured a pneumonia scare earlier this year but figures in the Euro qualifiers for Steve Clarke's Tartan Army.

He said: "I was really happy to be back out there on the pitch with the boys and in front of the fans after a little tough spell."

"I was just happy to help the boys get the result against Cyprus.

"I want to start every game for Scotland. I've done well since I came into the set-up but we've got great competition."

"Obviously Lawrence Shankland has come in now and he's had a great season. If I get the nod to play more, I'll be doing my best. The manager knows what I can bring, we've got a great relationship."

Toney insists he's good enough to play major role for England

By JOHN ANTHONY

IVAN TONEY wants to be a key man for England after finally making his debut.

The striker has once again been in fine form for Brentford this season with 16 Premier League goals and – having missed out on a place at the World Cup – made his international bow as a late substitute in the 2-0 victory.

Toney played just nine minutes off the bench, replacing Kane against Ukraine at Wembley.

The 27-year-old faces an uncertain future after being charged with 262 breaches of the FA's gambling laws, some of which he has since accepted.

But, despite a potential ban hanging over him, Toney has now targeted a regular berth in Gareth Southgate's squad.

FAITH: Southgate

Asked if he can become Kane's long-term deputy, he replied: "I hope so."

"I hope I keep performing and keep myself in and around the mix. But there's Harry Kane, one of the best strikers in the world, in front of me."

"There's other strikers around the Premier League that are doing well as well."

"I've just got to keep doing me and hopefully it's enough."

"With a player like Harry Kane in front of you, it's always going to be tough. He's one of the best strikers in the world."

"All I can keep doing is keep working hard, and when my chance comes, take it with two hands. Thankfully I got my cap, and it means a lot – believe me."
